

RGI 1-Day Conflict Resolution Course Ethical Protector Executive Overview Course

What is the RGI Ethical Protector Executive Overview Course?

The RGI Conflict Resolution course is a one-day intensive training experience for Police Leaders that introduces the RGI Ethical Protector physical, verbal and physical conflict de-escalation skills to:

- Build a protector culture within your organization
- Improve Community Relations
- Avoid negative publicity and civil liability issues

Top conflict resolution specialists from the law enforcement, military and martial art worlds will facilitate the course (please see bios on website). It is a synergistic course covering the following elements:

- Ethics - Personal Integrity and Leadership
- Verbal Skills - De-Escalation and Conflict Resolution
- Physical Skills* - Tactical Concepts That Help Officers More Effectively Manage Conflict

Course Description.

This 1 day certification course utilizes a combination of lectures, group discussion, and practical application training scenarios. As a participant you will:

- Be able to mentor others in the moral values and ethics of a Protector Professional.
- Learn to coach others to communicate better under stress to resolve conflict.
- Gain a familiarity with effective physical de-escalation skills that keep everyone safer.

Who should attend.

Police Chiefs and other senior Public Safety officials.

Note: *Although some of the training is physical in nature, the training does not require any special level of physical fitness or previous martial arts training. Participation in the physical aspects of the program is optional.

Date:

Wednesday, May 24, 2017
8am-4pm

Location:

Ocean County Police Academy

Cost:

$99 per person

(Please note: Your AG office or JIF may fund all or part of the course fee. Check with them to make sure.)

Verbal
Defense & Influence

Instructors:

Jack Hoban

Joseph Shusko

Mitch Little

(Additional instructor bios on website.)

For more information, including online registration, please go to:

<http://www.resgroupintl.com/courses>