

RGI 1-Day De-Escalation Course "The Ethical Protector"

What is the RGI De-Escalation Course?

The RGI De-Escalation course is a one-day intensive training experience for protector professionals who want to enhance their ability to de-escalate and resolve verbal conflict while making everyone safer.

- Improve Community Relations
- Avoid negative publicity and civil liability issues

Top conflict resolution specialists from the law enforcement and military will facilitate the course (please see bios on website). It is a synergistic course covering the following elements:

- Ethics - Personal Integrity and Leadership
- Communication - Verbal De-Escalation

Course Description.

This course utilize a combination of lectures, group discussion and physical training scenarios. As a participant you will:

- Develop a better understanding of moral values and ethics as they pertain to your life and profession.
- Learn to communicate better under stress to de-escalate and resolve conflict.

Who should attend.

This course is open to:

- Law enforcement, military and other protector professionals.
- Thought leaders who are interested in physical-moral leadership, conflict resolution and ethics.
- Prior RGI attendees who desire a "refresher" on the basic skills.

Date:

October 29, 2020

900am - 400pm

Location:

Voorhees Twp. Police Department

1180 White Horse Road

Voorhees, NJ 08043

Cost:

$150 per person

Note: The location will be disinfected the morning of the training and at lunch with UV light. Wear loose fitting clothes; tac pants and a T-shirt or polo are fine. No weapons needed.

Instructors:

Jack Hoban

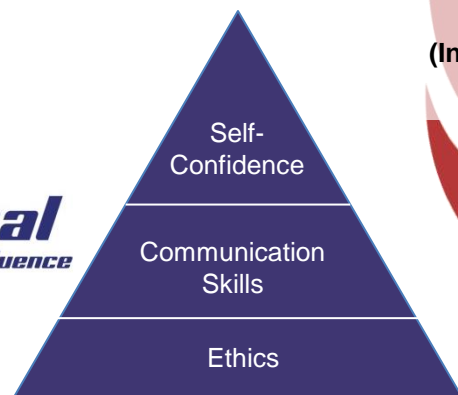

Mitch Little

Chris Winters

(Instructor bios on website.)

Verbal
Defense & Influence

For more information, including online registration, please go to:
www.resgroupintl.com/events